Its agents and employees, and the event facility are not liable for loss, theft or damage to the property of the Exhibitor and its employees or representatives. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to maintain proper insurance coverage.

Force Majeure: Job World USA reserves the authority to determine whether the Korean Job fair venue is fit or unsuitable for occupancy as a result of fire, flood, natural disaster, acts of war, strike, lock-out, labor dispute, riot or any other cause or agency over which Job World USA has no control. Should Job World USA decide that it is necessary to cancel, postpone, or move the show, or alter the schedule, Job World USA shall not be liable to reimburse the Exhibitor with respect to any directly or indirectly resulting alleged damages or losses.

If it is done so within this time, Job World USA will refund 50% of the employer's exhibit fees. However, if notice of cancellation is received after this time, no refunds will be issued. Job World USA reserves the right to designate the vacated space cancelled by the employer to another party without incurring any liability.

Exhibitor Representative: Each exhibiting organization must name at least one person to be its representative in connection with installation, operation and removal of the exhibit. The representative shall be authorized to enter into service contracts as may be necessary and for which the Exhibitor is responsible. Name tags are required for admittance to exhibit area.
